Understanding the Ice Schedule

This info sheet is offered as an overview to assist in understanding the Ice Schedule. Any questions related to the Ice Schedule can be directed to the Club Office.

Sessions are listed by test level designations (the Free Skate level a skater has passed determines which session they are eligible for). The levels that are listed first have priority for each session.

Free Skate Levels

- NT – No Test (skaters may have passed badges in group lessons, Basic 1–6 or Pre–Free Skate – Free Skate 6 but have no formal testing through U.S. Figure Skating)
- PP – Pre–Preliminary
- Prel – Preliminary
- Pre–Juv – Pre–Juvenile
- Juv – Juvenile
- Int – Intermediate
- Nov – Novice
- Jr – Junior
- Sr – Senior

Specialty Information

- P1 – 1 pair team level–appropriate to skate on these sessions
- P1L – 1 low–level pair team (up to Juvenile) to skate on these sessions
- P2 – 2 pair teams level–appropriate to skate on these sessions
- D1 – 1 dance team level–appropriate to skate on these sessions
- D2 – 2 dance teams level–appropriate to skate on these sessions
- Free – Free Skate session (it is not actually free of charge)
- Free/Dance – Free skate and dance are allowed on these sessions if level–appropriate
- Pairs – Pairs are allowed on this session if level–appropriate
